PROFILE

I am an IT technician by education, dealing with general programming. As a contributor, I make sure that I will give my best in any case. I currently live and study in Poznań. I am interested in most fields of programming and I am looking for one in which I will start specializing. I have IP121 and a Gallup report; my 5 main features are: 1. Harmony, 2. Responsibility, 3. Command, 4. Individualization, 5. Connectedness

PROJECTS

GENETIC CARS 2D
C# (.NET 7.0), Unity
Using a genetic algorithm model, the program teaches each generation of cars that tries to drive a route created by the user in unity.

MACHINE LEARNING GAME SALES
python, pandas, numpy, sklearn, pytest
Using the kaggle dataset about games and their sales, the program creates a forecast of the expected sales of a sample game based on several important characteristics. Trained with 3 models (RFR, PCA, LR).
